                 Director, Office of Planning, ICS

SUBJECT: CIA Forecast of Intelligence Needs Through 1992

1.. Just a note to thank you for sending me a copy of your forecast. Its appearance was timely, arriving just as we began internal discussions concerning the terms of reference for this year's Community long-range planning effort. We intend, inter alia, to extend the Community planning horizon out to 1995 this year and the CIA projection--and the priorities contained therein--will provide a good point of departure. (C)

2. I look forward to meeting you and discussing the contents of the CIA forecast personally. (U)

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Office of Planning
Intelligence Community Staff

FROM: Chief, Planning Staff
Office of the Executive Director
Central Intelligence Agency

SUBJECT: CIA's Forecast of Intelligence Needs through 1992

1. Enclosed for your information is a copy of CIA's 10-year forecast of intelligence needs which has been prepared by our Intelligence Directorate as a part of CIA's long-range planning process. I am separately sending copies to the DIA and NSA members of the Planning Forum. Copies have also been sent to members of the Intelligence Producers Council by its Chairman.

2. I would appreciate any comments you may have on this paper and any suggestions you may have on how it could be integrated into Intelligence Community planning.
